About Irish Echo

The band members of Irish Echo are known in Eugene and Springfield by their “day jobs”: elementary school principal, high school counselor, banker, chocolate company owner, lumber baron, and neurosurgeon, to name a few. But around St. Patrick’s Day, this group of 14 members, including two father-daughter duos, is known as Irish Echo, or “The Echo” for those in the know.

Irish Echo’s harmonizing lyrics, blend of string instruments, and upbeat pub songs, complete with audience sing-a-long opportunities, is a crowd pleaser. Between songs, the humor and friendship between members is palpable, and reminds the audience that although they have a great sound, this group doesn’t take itself too seriously. And they certainly aren’t in it for the money: for the second year in a row, all proceeds from the show will benefit CASA of Lane County.
